Section Skill Analysis

Capabilities and Skills

Understanding the skills

Section 1: Writing Total Score: 59.5/100

CEFR: A1 Beginner User

Candidate writes clear, connected texts on a variety of subjects using a sufficient range of grammatical structures and a good range of common English words.

Writing

Writing reflects the ability to produce accurate and appropriate written responses at a functional pace on everyday and workplace topics. The score is based on the ability to present information in a logical sequence, use a wide range of appropriate words, and a variety of sentence structures.

Section 2: Speaking Total Score: 59.5/100

CEFR: A1 Beginner User

Candidate produces some simple and meaningful sentences. Candidate speaks with adequate rhythm but some sections are uneven. Many words are produced clearly, but some sounds are mispronounced.

Speaking

Speaking reflects the ability to produce intelligible communication in everyday and workplace situations. The score is based on the ability to produce consonants, vowels, and stress in a native-like manner, use accurate syntax, and use appropriate rhythm, phrasing, and timing.

Section 3: Reading Total Score: 70/100

CEFR: B2 Independent User

Candidate reads, understands, and responds to texts on everyday and workplace topics at a moderate pace. In more complex texts, specific details will be lost.

Reading

Reading reflects the ability to understand written English texts on everyday and workplace topics. The score is based on the ability to operate at functional speeds to extract details and main ideas, infer the message, and construct meaning.
